

NEBRASKA MEDICAL GROUP MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

NMGMA is an organization for medical practice management professionals located in Nebraska. It is affiliated with the national organization for professional medical group managers.

In 1973, a few Nebraska managers began meeting informally and this group formed the nucleus of the organization that would become Nebraska Medical Group Management Association. In 1976, the organization was formalized with the adoption of the first Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation. Ken Lange of Lincoln Clinic was the first President of the corporation.

The goals of NMGMA are as follows:

1. The development and promotion of educational programs for members or support personnel by:
 - a. conducting periodic educational meetings;
 - b. providing diversified speakers in all areas which influence and affect medical group management;
 - c. encourage its members to aspire to and strive for the highest personal standards in the profession of medical management.
2. To provide a network of managers who are available to share ideas and information to help solve common problems.
3. To increase membership in a manner that will strengthen the organization in the further achievement of its organizational objectives; and
4. To cooperate with all other organizations having similar aims and objectives.

The term "Medical Practice" as used herein shall mean an organization of licensed doctor(s) of medicine or osteopathy, actively engaged in the practice of medicine and which shall employ as its administrative head a clinic manager or administrator in active management of its administrative and/or business affairs.

ACTIVE MEMBER: An Active Member is an individual who is serving in an administrative or managerial capacity within a formally organized and legally recognized physician medical practice. Active members shall:

1. Perform managerial duties in multiple areas, such as finance, personnel and data processing: or
2. Perform administrative tasks in a single area, such as marketing or medical records: or
3. Provide care and perform significant managerial or administrative functions: or
4. Be employed by a medical group practice.

An Active Member is entitled to vote, hold office, and serve on any committee.

STUDENT MEMBER: The Student Member is an individual who is actively working on a degree in healthcare administration or similar program. The student must not qualify in any other category of membership. A Student Member cannot vote, hold an office, or be chair of a committee, but may serve on a committee.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER: An Associate Member is an individual with an interest in healthcare management and does not qualify for any other membership category, including participants of management service organizations (MSO), physician-hospital Organizations (PHO), or other derivative models of clinical integration, as well as members of allied health practices. An Associate Member cannot vote, hold an office, or be chair of a committee, but may serve on committees.

AFFILIATE MEMBER: An Affiliate Member is an individual who does not qualify as an Active or Associate Member but who supplies products or services to NMGMA members. An Affiliate Member cannot vote, hold an office or be committee chairs, but may serve on committees.
